“ I haven't the space to tell of the many great memories I have of Ray, and his family. It wouldn't do him justice. But, legitimately, whenever I go back to any recollections of the beginnings and history of RCW... Ray is ALWAYS one of the people that come to mind. In and of itself, that says a lot, even to me. I've, for so long, wanted to go and spend some time with Ray. Life and the world just got in the way. Today should always be treasured. Tomorrow is never a guarantee, as we we don't know what God has in store for us. We have lost many loved ones, "brothers", without having reached out as we wanted. In memory of Ray I ask that each of us make a point to reach out to each other and work out at least a short phone conversation with some we have lost touch with. We might be surprised at the peace and Blessings that may come of it. I'm anxiously waiting to do my part. Love you, Ray, and Rest peaceful in the warmth of God's love!

“ Ray was a Fan in the stands that was given the chance to become a Ref and he became a good one along with his favorite the "Sarge" he became more than that as He and His Family become Friends outside as well. We have seen Steven grow up from a little smart hectic kid into a fine young man with children of his own. Yes there are "stories" but more than them He was a Good Hard Working Man that was Loved and will be missed. R.I.P.

“ i've been trying to remember my fondest memory of ray, forever funkhauser to me, and there are so many its not possible to pick just one. However monroe city does keep coming to mind. Funkhauser was a great referee he had to be to keep us clowns in line, good as he was in the ring he was just as good outside of it. He was a good father, husband and friend he will be missed. May he ref in heaven for those who have went before us and us when we get there. Mike "Street Warrior" Chouris
