“ Linda,

I was so sorry to learn of the passing of your brother, Rich. It's never easy to lose a loved one no matter how prepared we may be, but just know that the Lord is the Master Comforter and he heals all sorrows. He has surrounded you with people who love and care for you. It is my prayer that through Him, you will receive the warmth of his love during this sorrowful time. And remember, earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.

I don't have many memories of Uncle Rich but I do remember him having a great sense of humor and a infectious laugh. I know that God has a plan and Uncle Rich is in a much better place. Rest in Peace.

“ It's so hard to know what to say at times like this. Words somehow seem so inadequate and ineffectual considering what you must be going through.

All I can say is that I care about you and my thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of need.

I know the immense strength of character that you have. I have seen your courage and determination time and again in your life and I've seen you face adversity head-on. I also know, that while it will be really, really tough and a huge emotional and physical roller coaster - you will work through this, as you always have.

If you need me for anything - anytime -I'll be there at a moment's notice.

“ Uncle Richard, It was always a memorable experience visiting you whether it was here in New York or years ago in Saint Louis. I remember watching you take a “Carter,” carburetor apart, and then put it back together. There was no doubt that it would work superbly. Like most of our family, we have so many great memories of you that we could go on and on. Another thing I remember is that you had an infectious laugh that would make me laugh along with you. I concur with my older brother in that you were a big brother, uncle, dad and great friend all in one. You will be missed. Matthew J. Williams II and Marilyn Bree

“ Richard Earl...rhymes with Katy Pearl or “Beaver” which he liked to call himself. What I remember most about Uncle Richard is that he (along with Uncle Juan) taught me everything I know. He taught me how to be a man. I never told him this but I wanted to be just like him when I grew up. He was more than an uncle to me. He was a father and a brother and there was nothing he couldn't fix. I have so many favorite Uncle Richard stories unfortunately there is not enough room or time for me to do so here. This only came to me just a few days ago, Uncle Richard was teaching me everything I would need to know later in life and I didn't even know it. If that's not a trait of an excellent teacher and mentor I don't know what is. Uncle Rich when you get to heaven tell Mama I said “Hey” and “Roll Tide”.

Linda,

Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. I hope that your family finds comfort in the fact that to be absent from the flesh is to be present with the Lord. The blessing is that although, he may have had illness here on Earth, in God's house he is restored.

To my family Clifford, Mickey, Katie, Linda, Ronnie and Donnie, and everyone else who I might not remember the names, (Richard's kids and other supports). May God comfort you all in this time of sorrow and loss. The struggle is over and Rich is now resting in the bosom of our Savior and Lord. I will always remember the fun we had when Richard and his family came to Chattanooga, TN. I love you all and want you to know I am praying for your strength and comfort, the circle has been broken once again but God is in control and He will return soon for each of us because we all were taught early and know who we belong to! May God Bless and Keep You! Cousin Jeannie Atkinson & Family - Chattanooga, TN
