“ I am so sorry for the sad passing of Dick. The man was a legend. He was my boss for 6 yrs and always looked out for all of his people. He nagged me a lot like grandfather does and when my gpa would come up to work they would laugh and joke about all the ridiculous things I was capable of. He had the best soul and welcomed everyone. He is so missed and loved. I just wanted to apologize for not showing to the service as my brother was in the icu and then passed 7 days later. But the day of his service I was with my brother. I had to say how sorry I am for missing it because Dick was another mentor of mine that made a huge impact on my heart. I will forever love and miss that man and want his whole family to know that he is always there when life gets rough but in a different way. Many many many good vibes your way. I just felt so sorry for not going to the service that I had to make this post. I will forever miss “Oriellys auto parts. This is Dick. How can I help you.” And the blonde jokes saito and dick would share together (it was with love 😭 and I was difficult 😞). This man was the best of the best and I’m so sorry you guys have to miss him. Rip Dick.

“ Dick was one of the nicest person we ever met. We rent a space at his building and we couldn't ask for a better understanding and considerate landlord. He talked about his wife and family a lot. You can tell by the sound of his voice and the expression on his face how much he loved and cared about them. We give our condolences and prayers to his wife Diane and his entire family. Dick will be greatly missed. Vera and Leado Gray

“ My husband and I were fortunate to have Dick and Bob as our landlords. In a short period of time, it became a friendship. Anytime, we needed a repair, it was immediately addressed and fixed right. Dick always spoke about Diane, his immediate family and extended members. One memory in particular that stands out, was Dick and Diane hosting the family Thanksgiving meal with the multitude turkeys and all the family. When he would talk about this, it was with a smile on his face. Unfortunately, my husband passed away. The bright spot is how Dick helped me through the transition. Also, he sent the arrangement with the cross that I am sending. To this day, I look at it and smile myself. Keeping you all in my prayers for your strength.

“ Dick was a very kind and generous man! We will never forget when Dick opened his store on Christmas night to get an auto part for us so we could leave early on vacation the next morning. He didn't think twice about it just said I'll meet you in 10 minutes, and he did.
