

Richard "Dick" B. Dempsey

November 16, 1926 - March 21, 2013

Richard Blong Dempsey Age 86, of St. Louis, MO. Fortified with the Sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church, Thursday, March 21, 2013. Born in St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. Dempsey was a devout Catholic. He was the son of the late John and Martha (nee Blong) Dempsey and was preceded in death by his son, Matthew Conan Dempsey. He is survived by his loving children, Richard B. Dempsey, Jr., Julie King (Alan), Colleen Anderson (Brad), and Jeremiah Dempsey and by his adoring grandchildren, William, Matthew, Julia, Cole, Ava, Ally and Chloe, and great-grandchildren Ellen and Lucy. He is also survived by his brother, David Dempsey, and many other family members and friends. Richard, known by many as "Dick" practiced law for 61 years and was a well respected member of the Franklin County Bar Association. The strength he exhibited during his battle with illness and his dignity at the end is an example that will not soon be forgotten by those who loved him. His family is greatly appreciative of the care rendered to him by Mercy Medical Center and Delmar Gardens West Nursing Facility. Memorial Service: Monday, April 1, at St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church, 310 West Main Street, Washington, MO 63090 for 3:30 PM Mass. Private Interment, Calvary Cemetery.

“ Richard "Dick" Dempsey was one of a kind! A very intelligent and loyal friend. His heart was bigger than words can say. Without Dick Dempsey, there would be no Archway Memorial Chapel!! I am forever grateful God put him in our life. He was brilliant and classy even until his final days on earth. I will miss him dearly.
