“ *Donna and Family,
So sorry for your loss. Rick was a great person. I met him at training conferences as a recruiter and then worked side by side with him as a Guidance Counselor. He taught me everything He knew about the reservation system we used. He pulled up a chair right beside me at the computer and taught me like a Father would teach his son. I truly appreciated his patience in training me. He was very passionate about his job as a Guidance Counselor. I had an insurance claim years later and Rick happened to be the adjuster. He was just as passionate about that job. Rick was one of the best people I ever met. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.*

“ Donna and family,

So sorry to hear of Rick's passing. You have my deepest sympathy. When I became a Guidance Counselor I asked Rick to teach me the Army Reserve side of the house. He was more than willing to take me under his wing and impart his wisdom on me. I am grateful for his teachings as it helps me still to this day. A good man and a fine soldier, he will surely be missed. I pray for your strength and comfort in this trying time and always.
