“ Mr. Bobby was the true essence of a husband, father, grandfather, father in-law and great grandfather. I had the pleasure of being his daughter in-law at one point. From the very start he opened his heart to me and my children that lovingly called him "Gramps". He gave words of encouragement when he was cheering you on, he gave words of wisdom when you needed to hear them. He gave you REAL words to chastise you when you deserved it. But one thing that I loved is the words and looks of adoration when he was PROUD of you. You will be missed by all; we love you! So for now.....see you later alligator! ”
