“ Romans Chap 8

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Always scripture first, “

“Some people grumble that roses have thorns; I am grateful that thorns have roses.” –Alphonse Karr

Thanks so much for taking the time to share your knowledge and life experiences with me as a young man (a true thorn) . It is my pray that your family finds peace and comfort during this time of sorry. I pray that I get to visit with you on the other side.

“ it seems like yesterday that we were kids and part of one big family and then you made the transition to an awesome man. Our shared joke was I called him Robert Jr like his Mother did when she called him in from play. He was a soldier who didnt give up but simply let go and made his transition, to my dear friend Dorothy know that your grief is mine to share, and Rita may God give you comfort and peace . Robert and Ryan you had an incredible Dad that was proud of you both. Beverly Ann and entire family accept my deepest sympathy.

I enjoyed letting my students know that I knew that handsome guy in the photo in the nursing department. As I grew to know you better, you were like a brother-in-law to me. Whenever I eat Sea Bass, I will think about you. I will remember what you told me about enjoying life. "Rest in Peace". I will miss you!

A wonderful picture! This is how I remember Robert. He was a diligent, kind student and I truly enjoyed teaching him and learning from him. I doesn't seem that long ago that he continued his education from Licenced Practical Nurse to Registered Nurse at St. Louis Community College - Florissant Valley. He went on to have a very unique military experience that became an important part of the book he wrote "Caring for Victor: A U.S. Army Nurse and Saddam Hussein". A few years later, when he came back to STLCC-FV accompanied by his lovely wife for a book signing and a presentation of his experience, I had the privilege of introducing the distinguished author to his audience. I know that he served well and will be missed.

Please accept my sincere condolences on behalf of the nursing department at STLCC-FV.

“ To my Uncle Robert aka Bubba Ellis,
We had some awesome times together to many to put here. But I wil never forget the encounter that we had at Forest Park when we saw each other on the walking trail. You inspired me to be able to run that whole park in a hour. So now you have another trail to run and that is with your heavenly father. Please said Hello to all the family members that was gone before you. All of you will be truly missed. Love You, Crystle, Randy, Jamel, Jameisha, Jerick, and JaMont. We miss you also Great Uncle, Love Nevaeh, Zay'Den, Peyton, Amar and Baby Za'Riah.

On behalf of the GoGetter Productions team, we want to extend our condolences to Rita Ellis and the entire Ellis family. We only knew Robert for a short period of time, but he touched our hearts immensely.
We're blessed to have known him and deeply honored to tell his story,
"Keeping Saddam Alive: A Soldier's Story", with the nation and the world.

Robert you were a soldiers soldier and a very professional medic and nurse, a quite hero among us. Respected and admired, you worked hard to achieve everything that you have. May you rest in His arms now and hopefully smile down on our memories once in a while.
