

Roberta Krohn

December 17, 1951 - May 5, 2022

Roberta Krohn, a devoted and loving wife, mother of five, grandmother of seven, and long-time resident of Florissant, Mo. died at the age of 70 on Thursday, May 5, 2022, surrounded by her family.

Roberta was the oldest of five children and was looked at as a mother figure from an early age. She was a very strong woman who would tell everyone to call her Bert or Berta, as most of her friends and family would call her. She graduated from Hazelwood High School in 1971. She began working in the restaurant at a Schnuck's grocery store where she ended up meeting the love of her life James. A few years later they were married and started a family. How she managed to work nights as a manager at Schnuck's and still found time to keep the household is an inspiration.

Roberta is survived by her husband of 47 years, James F. Krohn, her children Jamie Krohn, Jessica Krohn, James (Gina) Krohn II, Josh (Amber) Krohn, and Jacob (Ramona) Krohn, her grandchildren Nicole Krohn, Autumn Blake, Lillie McGhay, Jackson Krohn, James Krohn III, Ava Krohn, her sisters, Susan David and Jeanette (Christopher) Gaylord, and her brother Robert Velker Jr. along with several nieces and nephews.

“ Roberta Ann Krohn's full Obituary:

A devoted and loving wife, mother of five, grandmother of seven, and long-time resident of Florissant, MO died at the age of 70 on Thursday, May 5, 2022, surrounded by her family.

Roberta was the oldest of 5 children and was looked at as a mother figure from an early age. She was a very strong woman who would tell everyone to call her Bert or Berta as most of her friends and family would call her. She graduated from Hazelwood High School in 1971. She began working in the restaurant at a Schnucks grocery store where she ended up meeting the love of her life James. A few years later they were married and started a family. How she managed to work nights as a manager at Schnucks and still found time to keep the household is an inspiration.

You'd often find Berta in the kitchen cooking up an amazing meal and loved to gather around the table with her family during the holidays. When she wasn't cooking, she enjoyed fishing, traveling, watching her favorite western channels, John Wayne flicks, and her dramatic soap operas. Her favorite vacations to share about were to South Dakota to see Mount Rushmore and a 25th wedding anniversary celebration trip to the Branson Bell. Berta also carried a passion for clowns, trains, and fireworks. She had an incredible green thumb and collected as many cactuses as she could. One thing is for certain, she would do anything for her children and was the proudest when she became a grandma. Roberta will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Roberta is survived by her husband of 47 years, James F. Krohn, her children Jamie Krohn, Jessica Krohn, James (Gina) Krohn II, Josh (Amber) Krohn, and Jacob (Ramona) Krohn, her grandchildren Nicole Krohn, Autumn Blake, Lillie McGray, Jackson Krohn, James Krohn III, Ava Krohn, her sisters Susan David and Jeanette (Christopher) Gaylord, and her brother Robert Velker Jr. along with several nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her parents Robert and Mary Jane Velker (Hance), sister Mary Jane Stevens, brother-in-law Vincent David, and her grandson Justin Krohn.
