

Ronald James Meyer

August 20, 1963 - November 22, 2018

Meyer, Ronald James Age 55 of Warrenton

Beloved son of Helen Meyer and the late Tom Meyer; husband of Marge Myer; father of Megan Meyer; brother of Jeff (Annette) Meyer and Mike (Christine) Meyer; stepfather of Sarah, Danny, and Harley Cochran, Jason and Tracey Myer; step-grandfather of 18; step-great grandfather of 1. Preceded in death by wife Chantay Meyer.

Ron was a fun, easy-going guy with a big heart. He loved music, reading, bonfires and the St. Louis Cardinals. He will be greatly missed by family and friends but we take comfort in his faith in Christ.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center:

“ Our deepest regrets are with Ron's family. We knew Ron's parents and Ron for many years - since cubscouts. He was very smart, athletic and good looking and he wasn't afraid to tackle a not so fun job - like staining my deck! Now he is at peace in heaven - God bless and keep his loving family.

“ *My sympathies to Ronnie Meyer’s family.
I am a step cousin of Ronnie, Jeff and Mike.
My grandmother, Pauline (Piotter) (Mohesky) Mertle was married to my Grandpa Joe Mertle.
I have not seen Ronnie since I was a child but I have many fond memories of his parents and brother’s visiting when I stayed at my grandparent’s home.
(I would hide under the bed when they came for a visit. I suppose because they were boys. But, I would come out from under the bed and we always had a good visit. My grandmother said she loved getting under the bed cleaned when I would crawl under there.
Good thing I was skinny back then or I would have gotten stuck!)
My best memory of Ronnie was always thinking him, Jeff and Mike were so handsome.
I cannot make it to the visitation/funeral this evening as I am unable to get off work.
My love to you all
