“ Dear Vincent and family, Deaconess Ruth Featherson was truly a blessing to all who knew her. A beautiful spirit inside and out. A truly woman of God! I will forever cherish her memory!

“ To Vincent, Douglas, Aunt Janet, family, and friends there are so many beautiful memories of Ruth Ann that I will forever cherish. I will miss our conversations, travels, her laughs and smiles, and our worship services together. We shared alot of time together and I always let her know that she was admired and truly loved. I was able to give her flowers (which she loved), lots of hugs, and Thank Yous. I will miss her Classy, Sassy, Jazzy, and Diva ways. Just know she was Blessed and Highly Favored. Continue to pray as a family with Vincent and I. In the midst of it all... God is in control and God is still good. We Thank You. ~Marian

To Vincent, Douglas and Family- I have fond memories of Mrs. Featherson. I loved how she would tell the story-the events of how she and Deacon Featherson met. I remember she was a "Fashion" queen-ensemble was always together-she had a heart of gold and love that poured into others-She especially loved her children-she always spoke highly and very proud of her family. Cherish the memories-she is resting.
