“ Mom,
There are many things I am thankful for that you taught me in life. The most important is the strength you instilled in me. On the day of your passing I felt like my heart had shattered into a million pieces. Thanks to the strength, love, hope, and faith I saw in you I know the pieces will fall into place in time. Thank you for all the time we spent together talking for hours and laughing so hard we cried. I will cherish those memories always. I love you, Mom more than the stars in the sky.

“ My Dearest Friend~ I remember the day we met and our children fell in love. The day Little David was born and we shared it together, Grandparents Day last year we shared the laughing of him dancing to the music. So with that laughter dance now with our Lord and know that in my journey Little David will not forget you, and will know the heart you had for all in your life. You always had a smile, laughter and kind words no matter what the situation was. Thank you for letting me be your friend for the last 10 years. My son was lucky to have you in his life and learn from you. We will deeply miss your presence here, but will keep you in our hearts. We will keep Katharine close to us always and love her like no tomorrow. She also knows what a "gem" you were in life. Ruth ~ your life replicated the bible story of your namesake. Peace be with you~ Robin and Dave Bealler

“ You were my first friend and best cousin, playing together every Sunday at Nanny and Paw Paw's, spending every Holiday just the 5 of us. Nanny taking us on trips (girl time), but my best memories were as teenagers sitting around the kitchen table and laughing so much it hurt. We were lucky to have grown up in a crazy family because they taught us love and laughter, I will miss the "5" of us, but rest assured, you will always be with us.

I love you!

Mary

(I bet you are sitting around the table now with Aunt Pat and Nanny having a good time)

“ *Ruth,
You were my sister for almost 55 years. When we were young you were my protector, my playmate, my friend. We both shared the complete and unconditional love of our parents. We shared the love of sports, music, and laughter. Together, we shared memories with our family, friends, and neighbors. You were the best sister in the world to me. It saddens me deeply to have to say these things in print when I should have said them in person. Although I am heartbroken, I rejoice in the knowledge that you now are with our Parents again, and also with Our Lord Jesus Christ.
With Eternal Love,
Ray*
