“ Hello, I am not sure how to say this or even who this should go to so I figured placing it here someone would see it. Today I received a call from a lady with a bank informing me that My mom's car a 2017 VW Jetta is being searched for, but I do not know anything about this I assume they found me because of my last name being Grimes I am sure we are very much related but I do not know this sweet angel, either way the bank is looking for this car and they are calling me to try and find it because they cannot get ahold to anyone else. I am so sorry for the passing but if someone could pass along the message to return the car to the bank so they will stop calling me trying to find it I would greatly appreciate it. I understand this may not have been the best place to put this but due to the fact I do not know any contact information for anyone I had no other way to do it. the number to the lady is 317-978-0217 and her name is Tony. I'm sorry for your loss.
