“ I was deeply saddened to hear about Sherman's passing, we were coworkers for many years, we communicated frequently on Facebook, and I was looking forward to spending time with him when I retire. I will miss him and send my sympathies to all his family and friends. Carey Moore, AKA Youngblood

From co-worker Buford McClendon I worked with Sherman Cole over 25 or 30 years starting at the plant down on Union and Natural Bridge and ending at the Wentzville plant. Sherman was a delightful person and he touched many lives especially mine. I think that I can safely speak on behalf of ALL our co-workers when I say that if our selfish Love ❤️ could have kept Sherman here.....He'd still be here with us. Love is what took him away from us....GOD'S love is the strongest love ❤️. I'll see you in the rapture my friend.....save a seat for me. R.I.P. Sherman Cole. Your work buddies Buford McClendon and Jerome Hurd!
