Preceded in death loving father Mitchel James, Granny Edith Teague, Uncle Steven James

Stephanie's greatest joy in her life was her daughter Isabella. The one thing she cared about more than anything was her family and her friends.

She truly loved her job As a bus driver for Hazelwood school district. She loved the little kids that she drove and all the employees that she got to work with.

We hope she's resting in heaven where she belongs with everyone that she loves so much.

“ First the James family you have my deepest condolence . I have known steph her whole life. A memory Steven brought her out to our home to play with my daughter Kelly they had a lot of fun in Kelly’s bedroom. They created a beautiful wall of coloring with the crayons ... it’s a good laugh ! 😂 R.I.P. Lisa Newman-Siegler
