“ When we were in Jr. high, my mom let me have a sleepover. Since my birthday was in winter I waited until summer so we could sleep outside in the giant tent. We cooked our dinner on the fire and drank a case of pepsi out of the cooler. Later we had a cartwheel handstand contest inside the tent and knocked it down on us. We were making so much noise, my dad was watching us from the window. Then he was laughing so loud he woke up my mom. She didn't find it so funny and yelled at us clown school is over girls go to bed. We laughed about clown school all through high school.

“ My sister will be missed so much. Taken from us way too young. When we were kids, I was her shadow. I always wanted to go wherever she went. I will love you and miss you so much. Life will not be the same without you. Forever my angel, Tammy Jo!
