“ Very sorry to hear this news. Tom was/is a great man. We remember him as a great friend to my mom and dad. I also have memories of Tom as one of those very engaged leaders in our boyscout troop so many years ago. Tom always took time to really teach, truly cared about making the scouting experience positive. The world is a better place because of Tom. Eric & Carolyn Token.

“ We have known Tom & Helen since courtship days, over 50 years ago. We have watched their love and family grow since then. It was our pleasure to share many games of monopoly and pinochle and picnics with them, and the honor of serving as Godparents for their son Mike. We will miss Tom very much.

Tom has been a special friend of mine and my wife Ann. We have enjoyed many times together here in Missouri and a special time together in England when Tom and Helen were working there when we visited Sissinghurst Gardens, a pub in London and some quaint country villages together which are treasured memories. Also Tom & I grew up in the same neighborhood which makes us friends for nearly 70 wonderful years. God bless Tom & Helen
