

Tyrus Dimitrit McGhee

November 28, 1962 - August 30, 2013

Tyrus Dimitrit McGhee "Dimitri" Age 50. Florissant, Missouri. Son of the Late Tyrus A. and Shirley A. McGhee; Father of Carmalene Lashe' Jackson and Tamika Shaunde' McGhee; Grandfather of Quintel LaReese Harris, Carmella Loraine Harris and Leyla Theresa-Louise Jackson; Brother of Douglas (Kris) McGhee, Kenneth (Sharon) McGhee, Illya (Dennis) Payne, Samantha McGhee, Charles (Amanda) McGhee and Wanda (Jerry) Thomas. Step-father of Daniel Harrison (Tamara L.) Brown and Deanna Kay (Willie II) Rice; Uncle to Lynn, Brittiany, Emily, Alexia, Tevar, Blair, Mikala, Courtney, Taylor, Brendan, Justin, Maxcine, Peyton, Nina, Ethan, Austin, Ty, Charlye and Gracie. Dear Nephew, Great Uncle, Step-grandfather, Dear Cousin, Relative and Friend to many.

Tyrus or known as "Dimitri", was born November 28, 1962 in East St. Louis, IL. He was educated in the Hazelwood School District (McNair and Hazelwood West High School). In his early years he enjoyed riding his bicycles and jumping home made ramps like Evel Knievel, wearing his black leather jackets and jeans, romping through the local creeks and woods and listening to all kinds of music although he mostly preferred Jimi Hendrix, Stevie Ray Vaughan, Buddy Guy, Bob Marley and many other great guitarist and blues musicians. Tyrus also enjoyed playing his guitar. He also played sports with FAA at Wiethaupt Fields in Florissant. He enlisted in the United States Army where he served for over 16 years with tours in many countries including Germany, Korea and in Iraq during the Gulf War-Desert Storm. He was employed by the VA Medical Center.

He enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren for they were the apples of his eyes. He liked to read and he had many friends and could sit down with anyone, anywhere and strike up a conversation about anything. He was a very likable person and had a good heart and was always in your corner if you would let him be. He could be comical about serious things, as well as very serious about comical things. He was definitely a one of a kind human being.

He most importantly was a Christian that accepted Jesus Christ as his Saviour at an early age and he led many others to Jesus Christ also. He will be deeply missed.

In Lieu of flowers, donations may be made to MCLEF (Marine Corps-Law Enforcement Foundation) 1001 S. Kirkwood Rd. Suite 130 St. Louis, MO 63122 or a charity of your choice.

“ I served with Tyrus in the gulf war, and though we did not keep in touch, I considered him a friend. He was someone I knew I could count on over there. I'm shocked to hear of his passing, but I know where he is now, and that is some comfort.

I remember being out in the desert and going to hear the chaplain with Tyrus. He commented on how the chaplain just had this glow about him, and it felt good to be around him. I know when we see each other again, we'll be even more amazed.

“ My prayers and love go out to the entire McGhee Family. Dimitrit was such a humble man & always acknowledged & showed me kindness when I was in his presence. I was shocked to hear of his transition but it also goes to show that we never know the time or day, we must ALL be ready ~~

“ Dimitri (Tyrus) and I met in Kindergarten and he lived at the top of my street. Interestingly enough throughout our school years, we ran in different crowds but connected like brother and sister in any situation and could always share (without any judgment) our lives from different perspectives and experiences. We walked and talked together many times over many years and laughed and cried and hugged and shared our most honest thoughts and hopes. He went away for awhile to serve our country but found me again and we started up again right where we left off. I met his wife and beautiful children and fell in love with all of them immediately. There are very few in my life as special as my brother, (Tyrus) Dimitri. He often stopped by to see me and my family at my childhood home (that I still live in) and became one of us. We did not have a romantic love but he did manage to make my heart swell when I saw him walking down the street towards me or when I would catch him smiling at me across the room. If he saw me somewhere, he would shout, "ROSIE!" and it would make me so happy that he didn't care who heard him or what they thought. I think that was because throughout my entire life of memories, I knew there was that little boy who grew up with me, who held my hand and my heart through it all, and I am forever grateful to have had such a privilege and honor to be his friend. I am devastated and heartbroken but will always remember one more thing, and it's going to sound arrogant but I don't mean it that way; Dimitri loved me. I know this. Not because I have to guess or assume it. It's because he always told me and I told him. May God hold him close and reward him for being such an amazing example of TRUE LOVE.

“ Always a shock to here someone you walked the same halls with is gone. I cant say I knew Tyrus very well, but I do remember when I was at a party when I was a freshman and Tyrus was a senior. Lets just say he kept me from getting my ass kicked and I always thought of him as a gentle giant. My very best to the family, I am positive he will be missed.

“ We all know how long we have known him by his name. I called him Dimitrit.

Yes, we were in kindergarten together, played " king of the hill" in Blackfoot Park, I mourned with him during the loss of his parents, graduated HS together and had a great time seeing him at our reunions. We shared many ups and downs over the years. I will miss him even though I didn't communicate with him lately. I knew he was always there.

He invited me to play 21 questions last week, on 8/28,. I have to say, I've never played it but stopped and said "I will do this", but didn't that day. I'm regretting that I didn't take the time to play. He has made an impact on many lives. Let's all pay it forward and keep his love alive. As we have learned, anything can happen in the blink of an eye. God Bless the McGhee family. Stay strong!
