“ The last time I saw you, I did not know It would be the last time that I would ever see you again cousin. You were full of life with your beautiful smile. You left us way too soon, at a very young age. This breaks my heart. I guess, it was tome for you to move on. Time is not promised to anyone and I wish there was more time for you. You will be missed dearly always. I love you.
Love your cousin, Terence.

“ Vanessa, I knew you when you were a baby, your momma's very first. I knew you as a little girl, and a big sister. The photos I am attaching are from the last time I saw you. You must have been about 6 yrs old. I didn't get to see you grow into the beautiful young lady you became. I'm am so so sorry to see that you were taken from all of those that loved you and that I'm sure loved you back. I pray for your family; parents, grandparents, aunts,uncles,cousins and sisters that have to go on without seeing that beautiful smile ever again. I pray for every life that you touched with your life and the joy you brought to them all. I pray for your classmates that will not get to walk with you in your graduating class. I pray that they will remember you and smile. Rest in peace little angel. May God be with you and your family as they walk down this road without by their sides.

“Nessa!! Whew!😭 What a beautiful young lady you had become. I remember when your mom was pregnant with you! We would bump bellies together trying to get the first two girls of the family out! The most beautiful baby you were. Such a quiet, squirrely, intelligent little girl you became. So interested in creatures, colors, and your momma. When you became a big sister it was like magic to your eyes. You protected her and grew as one ❤️ Then another sister and to her you were a bigger model then your time before. Patient , kind and humble you were to step into the teenager you became. You were the dream cousin, the gentle daughter and the love to many for the rest of their lives. I wish there was more time and that I wasn't using words like “you were” I will remain to say I Say I Love You ❤️

It's crazy how god can bring someone in your life and take them out so soon.

I'm gon miss you so much. Ever since we was kids you been my best friend. Through love and by choice. I wish your time didn't end so soon but you will be loved and you will be missed. I remember coming over for thanksgiving and having the best time

Ever. We were always the two that got told we looked alike and acted alike. I remember playing dress up and we thought we were so pretty. Now that your gone I don't know if life's gonna be the same anymore. I will look for you in the sky and one day

I'll be up there with you and I'll get to see what you see. And we'll be able to tell eachother about the old memories of us. I love you forever and always Venessa

I love you cousin and you will always be remembered ❤️🕊️
