“ Dear all,

I began caring for Virginia/Jeanie in May of 2012, after her dear sister Mary passed on. She was a very pleasant lady to get to know and even though she repeated her stories often, during this time in her life, it was good for me (who learns best through repeats); plus, she always added something new that she hadn't said before and I treasure her memories as my own and hope to reunite with her, in the kingdom of God, some day; for, I won't live here forever, neither! As a believer in Christ I look forward to the day when I, too, will cast off this temporary tent in exchange for a brand new one as it states in 2 Corinthians 5:1-5 and 1 Corinthians 15:42-44 in the Holy Bible for which the life of God incarnate is recorded who I shared with Jeanie and hope she believed in and received. The time Jeanie and I shared together will always be remembered by someone and they were little treasures I found along life's path here that I will keep in my heart and share with others when opportunity presents itself; until, I, too, leave this earth to meet our Creator: May the Grace of Jesus Christ, and the Love of the Heavenly Father, and the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all those who were positively touched by the life and death of Virginia/Jeanie Dinan (?sp?) Mudd

*In loving memory,
Marie Crow*
