“ I met Virginia Schmidt when I was about 10 years old, many years ago in Wyoming. As a child I remember her as being busy with her children and her church. Then and through the years she was always kind. When I think of her I see her smiling. I remember her studying interior decorating, working at a furniture store in Laramie and making her home a comfortable, lovely place for her family and friends. I remember her whispering a thank you in my ear. I remember at Whitney’s wedding, how she, Susie and Randy drove around Midland in their car to listen to the end of a book on tape (which she hinted was a some what risqué story). I remember her joy at being with her kids and her grandchildren. Who can forget the wonderful Christmas village she had accumulated over the years and set up in her apartment? I remember going to lunch with her and Ellen several years ago at the club she and her husband had joined here in St. Louis. It was obvious from how kind and friendly she was toward the staff and how they treated her, that she was known and liked. I think that says a lot about a person when they treat the people that are waiting on them with kindness, smiles and thoughtfulness. There are many fond memories of this women who will be missed here on earth.

“ Virginia was our beautiful neighbor at Hidden Lake. She was such a wonderful gentle woman and Christian witness. She was always so complementary about my music and loved the devotions and "Sing-A-Longs" we held. Praise to the Lord she has received her heavenly reward and is rejoicing in meeting her Lord and reuniting with her beloved Edward and so many other saints! Our sympathy to all the family. May you feel God's real presence in your lives and be comforted!
