

Vivian Clara Luesley

November 23, 1931 - May 15, 2024

Vivian was born in St Louis, MO to William and Clare Skewes. A lifetime resident of St Louis she worked as a bank teller until retirement and her love of people caused her to seek out employment at Schnucks until she was 80 years old.

She loved to collect dolls and was always up for attending craft shows.

Survivors include one daughter: Jill Luesely; five sons: David, Daniel, Dion, Desmond, and Darrin; five grandchildren; and one great grandchild.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her spouse: James Luesley; one daughter: Janet; four brothers; and one sister.

Memorial graveside services will be Thursday June 6 at 1:45 pm with interment at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery.

Cemetery Details

National Cemetery - Jefferson Barracks

2900 Sheridan Rd
St. Louis, MO 63125

Previous Events

Graveside Service

JUN 6. 1:45 PM (CT)

National Cemetery - Jefferson Barracks
2900 Sheridan Rd
St. Louis, MO 63125

Tribute Wall

JM

“ She was one of the nicest women I've ever known. She always had a smile for you and a pleasant demeanor. I know her family will miss her dearly.

Joseph Mundel - May 23, 2024 at 01:05 PM

HB

“ Mrs. Luesley was a wonderful lady with a quick wit, a will of iron and a heart of gold. She faced life's challenges with an indomitable spirit and a smile on her face. When I was growing up, all the kids in the neighborhood knew and loved her. May she rest in eternal peace.

Harry C. Brooks - May 23, 2024 at 11:23 AM

NC

This is my mom Helene's sister I will love you forever aunt Vivian ❤️ gives me comfort to know you and mom are together now.

nancy Cuthbert - December 15, 2025 at 08:48 PM