

Vlado Radovich

September 21, 1939 - June 2, 2024

Vlado Radovich, a long-time resident of Brentwood, MO, passed away peacefully at home on June 2, 2024, at the age of 84, after a long decline in health. Vlado was a beloved husband, father, and grandfather who cherished spending time with his family. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Jacqueline Radovich (née Schwarzen), daughter Natasha (Brian) Detwiler, and grandchildren Derek, “Nico” Dominic, and Deacon Detwiler. Vlado took immense joy in being around his three grandsons, who were the light of his life.

Vlado was born on September 21, 1939, in Bratac, a village in Nevesinja, Yugoslavia, to Nicola and Gospava Radovic. He emigrated from Yugoslavia to the United States in 1966, seeking new opportunities and a better life. He worked diligently as a tool and die maker and was known for his strong work ethic, ultimately retiring 20 years ago. Vlado always prioritized his family and enjoyed every moment spent with them. His greatest happiness came from watching his grandsons grow and thrive, and he treasured every moment he spent with them.

In addition to his immediate family, Vlado leaves behind relatives and friends in both the United States and Serbia, who will remember him fondly. His legacy of hard work, love, and dedication to family will continue to inspire those who knew him.

Vlado's family and friends will forever hold his memory close in their hearts.
They will miss him greatly. May he rest in peace.
