

William Thaddeus Duffie

April 10, 1957 - November 21, 2023

My beloved husband William Thaddeus Duffie Jr., Sunrise April 10, 1957 Sunset November 21, 2023. He was born in St. Louis, Missouri. He was an only child. His father, William Thaddeus Duffie Sr., served in the armed forces.
Duffie graduated from Hazelwood East High School and attended Florissant Valley Community College. He was employed at "The Parking Lot" for 20 years.

God was always first in Duffie's life, he spent a lot of his time reading and studying God's word. He was a prayer warrior and a workman spreading God's word to anyone who would listen. Jesus was his Lord and Savior, Born Again, Son of God, that's who he was. He also had a strong passion for music.

Duffie loved his beloved wife Veronica Duffie who he was married to for six years. My beloved husband is at peace, no more pain. He fought a good fight and finished his race honoring Jesus the whole time.

“ I am so saddened by this. I had known Duffie since 1993. I have no words. If anyone would be willing to reach out to me about him I'd greatly appreciate it. I just found this out yesterday.
