“ We love Willie... she was such a great person and a fantastic grandparent - even my girls referred to her as 'Grandma Willie'. We cherish the wonderful crafts/blankets she made just for us.

She sure had a way of organizing both Franks! Our hearts are warm with good memories, and our thoughts are with all of the Badolatos at this sad time... sorry we can't be there with you this week to celebrate her life.

With love from Western Australia,
Drew, Kim (Laura's sister), Adrienne and Kirsten Reeder

“ Willie was a wonderful lady and I spent many days at her house growing up with Frank when we were young. She made us pizzas, let us watch movies, and allowed us to be crazy young kids. My thoughts and prayers go out to Frank and the Badolato family.

“ I remember when I first met Mrs. Badolato more than 35 years ago. She was a special and loving person. Who else would save bags and bags of the St. Louis Post Dispatch news articles about the space shuttle like she did for me. She always had a smile to share and always made me smile. I remember the times together as we all watch Matt and Amanda celebrate their birthdays. My lasting memory will be chatting with her on the our couch this past Christmas after the hustle and bustle was over. Once again ... She put a smile on my face!!!!!! I share this photo from the 2012 Christmas party. I am not quite sure what Lil is doing to get the the "look" from her mom. Maybe Lil is taking Mrs. Badolato's favorite food, taking too long ... I am not sure. May Mrs. Badolato rest easy in God's home and put a smile on his face. God bless Lil, Amanda, Matt, Dave and all of the Badolato family.

Aunt Willie was always there for me if I needed help with projects. She had lots of craft and sewing ideas for me to make for my kids. I saw her at Target one time and told her Nikki was having a baby girl she told me about the holiday houses she made for her grand kids to play house with. I only wish I would have gotten over there to learn how to make them. She always made time for me when I was growing up. Thanks for the memories. I will miss running in to her at Target.....

“ Mrs. Willie was ALWAYS kind to me! I had the pleasure of sharing special moments with her through our family functions. She was a strong woman even to the last moment of life on earth. Her entire family remains in my prayers.
