“ I literally just found out you passed. I am in shock. I was wondering why you didn't accept my friendship on facebook. So much has happened and I wanted to share with you and laugh with you about all the good times we had together. We were friends. I wanted to tell you about the time you and I both were single so we decided to get each other gifts for Valentines Day. I remember your Mercedes and the long history of friendship we had. I am so sorry we didn't reconnect before you went home to be with our heavenly father but friend may you rest in peace and I will see you again some day.

“ Ronald, Annette and Janice, life has cut me once again deep in my heart. Y'all more like brother and sisters to me than cousins.

You guys are parts of my earliest memories. I could never wait to get to St. Louis and couldn't wait for Willie. He was my big brother and would teach me from the knowledge, experience and wisdom he got from Ronald.

I know your pain and just know that I share in your hurt. I love you all and send my deepest sympathies.

Little Willie, I don't have the words to say that can ease the pain of losing a dad especially one as close as you and your dad lil cuz but know that I love you and here for you.

Willie, I miss you man. RIP my brother.

“ I remember visiting St. Louis in the summertime as a young girl, and my brother, sister and me along with Willie, his brother and sisters (our cousins). We used to ealk along the streets and enjoy the sights and smells and sounds of the city. I don't remember a lot of specific things but I remember that I always had fun whenever I was around any of them. Willie is no longer with us. We may not be able to talk ti him today but the scriptures help us to appreciate that God's will is that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life.(John 6:40) In fact, Isaiah 25:8 tells us that "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah will wipe away tears from all faces" . He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more.- Rev. 21:4. Death is an enemy and 1Cor. 15:26 assures us that 'the enemy this is to be brought to nothing.' I look forward to the day when God's promises are fulfilled we can live in a peaceful paradise on earth until times indefParker-Hancock-Psalms 37:29. Dannette Parker-Hancock

We have known Ronald, Annette, Janice and Willie for 45 years, we grew up with them and have very fond memories playing and doing all the silly things kids do.
